The misstatements made, the bald assertions, and the intentionally misleading paragraphs are the flagship. really boneath contempt, but such a barefaced misstatement of facts should not be allowed to go uncorrected, for fear of its doing some harm ontside of the colony, where the motives for rosning down the concern may not be so well understood as they are here.

I notice the first effusion in the China Mail of the 7th was signed "Investor." Can this possibly be the same " Investor" who figured in the Share Bill controversy and who was so strong in his condemnation of depreciating the value of other people's property? If so, allow me to bring to his notice the good old saying that "consistency's a jewel." On the 7th " Investor " writes :- " How
